May participate individually or as a team to complete a graham cracker gingerbread house in the Library Community Center.	May compete individually or as a team to completely construct a gingerbread house in the Library Community Center.	Group entries are allowed. One gingerbread house per participant or group. All entries must be in the form of a gingerbread house.
The Kennedale Public Library will supply all needed materials but parents are encouraged to bring additional edible embellishments to share with all. Children must be accompanied by parents while building.	The library will supply candy, hot cocoa, and popcorn. You must provide your own royal icing, gingerbread, and a sturdy base not exceeding 24" x 24". We suggest a plywood base. Kits are allowed, but you're encouraged to use homemade gingerbread to allow more creativity. You may also bring your own edible embellishments to use, in addition to the ones provided.	All houses must be placed on a plywood board base not exceeding 24" x 24". Please include the name(s) of all participant(s) and the title of your creation on the base. Completed entries must be submitted at the Kennedale Public Library (316 W 3rd St.) between 10:00 a.m. and noon on Saturday December 10th, 2016.
Once finished, you may take your creation home or leave it for display in the Library from December 3 – 9. Unclaimed houses will be disposed of at 10:00 a.m. December 10th. Please pick up your house before then if you'd like to keep it!		Houses will be displayed December 10 –16. Unclaimed houses will be disposed of at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, December 17th.

- Registration deadline is Wednesday, November 23, 2016. If you have questions regarding the contest or rules , please contact the Library at 817-985-2136 or email Library Director Amanda King at aking@cityofkennedale.com.
