Thank you for your interest in serving this community. Advisory board input is vital to Kennedale's success. Advisory board members serve two-year terms, and must re-apply to continue their service. There are no term limits. The City Council interviews applicants every fall and usually makes appointments in October. Applicants are expected to have a general understanding of the Comprehensive Plan and the Strategic Plan (see cityofkennedale.com/govdocs).

If appointed, you must submit all required paperwork to the City Secretary, including certificates of completion for the Open Meetings Act and Public Information Act videos (see cityofkennedale.com/agvideos), before serving as a board member.
